COURSE EXPECTATIONS

Let's Review Course Outline Together

A DAY IN THE LIFE IN MRS. BLACK'S CLASS

ARRIVAL:

- Please be on time (enter BEFORE the second bell goes)
- If you are late, pls enter quietly and sit down without disrupting the class

IN CLASS:

- Responsibility – As senior students you know what is right/wrong by now. You will be treated as young adults
 - Come prepared to work: mentally and with the necessary materials
 - Seating Plan – onus on you to showcase to me who you can or cannot work with. Seating plan will be in affect after first 2-3 days of class.

- Collaborate and create respectful relationships
 - This is a collaborative learning environment where all thoughts/opinions are communicated and listened to in a respectful way
- Get involved and participate!
 - The more involved you get/the more FUN you will have in this course
- Cell Phone Use — make good choices on cell phone use in class
 - Use during independent work, NOT when teacher is speaking or during team work

A DAY IN THE LIFE IN MRS. BLACK'S CLASS

ABSENCES:

- Validate your absences!
- Missed Tests/Assignments – email me BEFOREHAND if you are indeed going to be absent for test day or if assignment will be late
 - See me ASAP upon your return (expect to write immediately)
- Ask a friend for any work missed/check class website:
www.phscanadianlaw.weebly.com
- Handouts – at front of class in binder

IT'S A TWO-WAY STREET... MY PROMISE TO YOU

- Keep you up to date on your progress in this course
- Create a fun and mutually respectful classroom for all to learn in
- Respect your opinions and communicate openly with you
- Read everything you submit and provide you with timely feedback
- Prepare you for an exciting and unknown future – failure is NOT an option!

LASTLY ... I promise to NOT be a teacher like this guy....
